INFORMATION YOU SHOULD KNOW

Effective May 13, 2024, please review updates made to the Your Deposit Account Agreement document which may affect your rights.

Beginning April 8, 2024, you can review the full revised document at usbank.com/YDAA-upcoming-version, by calling 24-Hour Banking at 800-USBANKS (872-2657) or by visiting your local U.S. Bank branch. We accept relay calls.

Here's what you should know:

- Under the Overdraft Protection Plans section, Business Banking Overdraft Protection sub-section, updated the language to state that when a checking account has a linked Business Reserve Line of Credit, the system will automatically draw from that account first, which may incur a fee. If a checking account has a deposit product and credit product linked as overdraft protection, the order of eligible accounts is updated to always draw from the deposit product first, which will not incur a fee, unless the checking account has a linked Business Reserve Line of Credit. If the deposit product has insufficient funds available to transfer, funds will draw from the credit product.
- Under the Closing Your Account section, added a paragraph for How the account closure works that says, for consumer checking, savings and money market accounts, when you request an account closure, your account will be placed in a 'pending closure' status for a period of 10 business days. During this 10 business day 'pending closure' period, we will allow pending deposits to be cleared and/or post to your account and we will allow pending debit card transactions that you authorized prior to initiating closure to be cleared and/or post to your account. Your debit card will be declined and transactions will no longer be approved when the account is in 'pending closure' status. Once your account is fully closed, transactions will not be allowed to post to the account except under limited circumstances. For example, transactions may be processed after closure if necessary for fraud investigations, transaction dispute claims, merchant credits, or deposit adjustments due to errors.

If you have questions or need to request a copy of the current Your Deposit Account Agreement, visit usbank.com/tmtermsandconditions or please call your customer service team at the phone number listed at the top of this statement.

CONSUMER BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY REGARDING YOUR RESERVE LINE

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake on Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

U.S. Bank, P.O. Box 3528, Oshkosh, WI 54903-3528.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar Amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Reserve Line Balance Computation Method: To determine your Balance Subject to Interest Rate, use the dates and balances provided in the Reserve Line Balance Summary section. The date next to the first Balance Subject to Interest is day one for that balance and is applicable up to (but not including) the date of the next balance (if there is one). We multiply the Balance Subject to Interest by the number of days it is applicable and add them up to get the same number of days in the billing cycle. We then divide the result by the number of billing days in the cycle. This is your Balance Subject to Interest Rate. Any unpaid interest charges and unpaid fees are not included in the Balance Subject to Interest. The ***INTEREST CHARGE*** begins from the date of each advance.

REPORTS TO AND FROM CREDIT BUREAUS FOR RESERVE LINES

We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

CONSUMER REPORT DISPUTES

We may report information about account activity on consumer and small business deposit accounts and consumer reserve lines to Consumer Reporting Agencies (CRA). As a result, this may prevent you from obtaining services at other financial institutions. If you believe we have inaccurately reported information to a CRA, you may submit a dispute by calling 844.624.8230 or by writing to: U.S. Bank Attn: Consumer Bureau Dispute Handling (CBDH), P.O. Box 3447, Oshkosh, WI 54903-3447. In order for us to assist you with your dispute, you must provide: your name, address and phone number; the account number; the specific information you are disputing; the explanation of why it is incorrect; and any supporting documentation (e.g., affidavit of identity theft), if applicable.
